Introduction

This publication explains the federal income tax rules for social security benefits and equivalent for 1 railroad retirement benefits. It is prepared through the joint efforts of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), the Social Security Administration (SSA), and the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board (RRB).

Social security benefits include monthly retirement, survivor, and disability benefits. They do not include supplemental security income (SSI) payments, which are not taxable.

Equivalent for 1 railroad retirement benefits are the part of tier 1 benefits that a railroad employee or beneficiary could have been entitled to receive under the social security system. They are commonly called the social security equivalent benefit (SSEB) portion of tier 1 benefits.

If you received these benefits during 2010, you should have received a Form SSA-1099, Social Security Benefit Statement, or Form RRB-1099, Social Security Benefit Statement, or Form RRB-1042S, Social Security Benefit Statement, or Form RRB-1042S, Statement for Non-resident Alien Recipients of Payments by the Railroad Retirement Board. If you are a nonresident alien showing the amount.
